

HELLO + WELCOME

Dear Student,

Congratulations on your acceptance, and welcome to General Assembly! You should have already received an official acceptance email, but there are a few more steps to take to solidify your enrollment and reserve your seat in the class.

As you may have heard, GA is in the process of getting licensed by California's regulatory agency for postsecondary education. State law requires us to share some new documents with you as a part of the admissions process. We have enclosed them here for your review/signature, and described them in more detail below.

These documents are intended to provide you with important information about enrolling in a GA program, which is an investment that we take very seriously. We're generally not a fan of legalese but these forms are required to contain specific language. Where possible, we've tried our best to make them clear and easy to understand.

NEXT STEPS

REVIEW THE GA CATALOG

Review the GA Catalog. You should have received a copy of GA's Catalog in your acceptance email. This is a comprehensive repository of GA policies and course information. We encourage you to read this carefully before you sign the Enrollment Agreement.

REVIEW AND SIGN THE ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT

Review and sign the Enrollment Agreement. This document is a contract between you and GA. It includes important information about your course, including all applicable fees, and our policies for refunds, cancellation, and withdrawal.

REVIEW AND SIGN THE STUDENT DISCLOSURE

Review and sign the School Performance Fact Sheet. This document is intended to give you data on student outcomes, including course completion and job placement rates, where applicable. GA was not offering all courses in California in 2011 or 2012, but we are reporting on this time period because the State of California requires us to publish data by August 1st every year from the prior two years. If you'd like more current data on this program, we're happy to discuss it with you.

Please don't hesitate to reach out to your Admissions Producer if you have any questions about the above. The RightSignature link to these documents expires in 48 hours and we appreciate your prompt attention to them.

We hope to see you in class soon!

Cheers,

The GA Admissions Team

C. INITIAL PAYMENT

Unless otherwise agreed to in a private lending agreement and as approved by General Assembly, students must issue a deposit of at least 25% of the total course tuition prior to the start of the course. Students must issue payment for at least 50% of the total tuition by the start of the third week of instruction. General Assembly may allow students to delay payment of tuition deposits under extraordinary circumstances. If you believe you have an extraordinary circumstance, please speak to an Admissions Manager.

STUDENT AGREES TO PAY SPECIFIED FEES AS FOLLOWS:

Charges Due Upon Enrollment $ 875

Method of Payment Credit Card

Remaining Balance Due $ 2625

A late fee of 1% of the amount outstanding will be charged 30 days after a payment is missed.

Be sure to read all pages of this agreement—it is part of your contract with the school.

D. REFUND POLICY

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

1. You have the right to cancel your course of instruction, without any penalty or obligations, through attendance at the first class session (the Course Start Date in section A of this agreement) or the seventh calendar day after enrollment (the execution date of this agreement in section B), whichever is later. After the end of the cancellation period, you also have the right to stop school at any time; and you have the right to receive a pro rata refund if you have completed 60 percent or less of the scheduled days in your course through the last day of attendance.
2. Cancellation may occur when the student provides a written notice of cancellation cancellation at the address of attendance stated on the enrollment agreement. This can be done by email or by hand delivery.
3. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with proper postage.
4. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the Enrollment Agreement.
5. If the Enrollment Agreement is cancelled the school will refund the student any money he/she paid, less a registration or administration fee not to exceed $100.00 within 45 days after the notice of cancellation is received.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE COURSE

You may withdraw from the school at any time after the cancellation period (described above) and receive a pro rata refund if you have completed 60 percent or less of the scheduled days in your course through the last day of attendance. The refund will be less a registration or administration fee not to exceed $100.00 within 45 days of withdrawal. If the student has completed more than 60% of the period of attendance for which the student was charged, the tuition is considered earned and the student will receive no refund.

For the purpose of determining a refund under this section, a student shall be deemed to have withdrawn from a course of instruction when any of the following occurs:

- » The student notifies the institution of the student's withdrawal or as of the date of the student's withdrawal, whichever is later.
- » The institution terminates the student's enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress; failure to abide by the rules and regulations of the institution; absences in excess of maximum set forth by the institution; and/or failure to meet financial obligations to the school.
- » The student has failed to attend class for 4 class meetings.

For the purpose of determining the amount of the refund, the date of the student's withdrawal shall be deemed the last date of recorded attendance. The amount owed equals the daily charge for the course (total institutional charge, minus non-refundable fees, divided by the number of days in the course), multiplied by the number of days scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal.

If any portion of the tuition was paid from the proceeds of a loan or third party, the refund shall be sent to the lender, third party or, if applicable, to the state or federal agency that guaranteed or reinsured the loan. Any amount of the refund in excess of the unpaid balance of the loan shall be first used to repay any student financial aid programs from which the student received benefits, in proportion to the amount of the benefits received, and any remaining amount shall be paid to the student.

General Assembly does not participate in federal or state financial aid programs. However, if a student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds.
